Dear Sonic X-Grams:
I've got itching, burning, deep questions that I think you will be annoyed answering because it involves some serious archiving, but I hope you [illegible]

Have you seen a doctor about these itching, burning questions of yours?

Your SONIC X series was quite "X"-cellent as you said it was, but I want to know just what's with the "themed" issues (St. Patrick's Day, The Circus, etc.)

It's too bad this series is ending at issue #40 - you shoulda seen what we had lined up for Boxing Day!

Will Chris ever get on the ship Blue Typhoon, or will he have to wait several years?

The kid's not even old enough to drive! But there is still ONE issue left!

A looong time ago when I was a kid, I read a Sonic comic in "Garfield" magazine. (Winter, 1992 issue) It partially advertised Sonic 1 for Genesis, but explained how Sonic originally became blue. Did Archie have anything to do with this?

As much as we'd like to claim that we are masters of ALL printed Sonic material, sadly, no. This was not one of our babies.

It's very annoying having to go around correcting my peers that Robotnik's name is NOT "Dr. Eggman." I realize "Eggman" is just his nickname, but many, many people are getting confused...

Maybe that's the point! Actually, Robotnik's name has changed so many times, who's to say what his "real" name is? Is it Julian Kintobor? Ivo Robotnik? Dr. Eggman? El Gran Gordo?

Thank you for taking the time to read my burning questions! Here's Sonic fan #322 signing off!

- JUSTIN K.
INDIANA

Dear Sonic X-Grams:
Has Eggman ever used mind control over Sonic? And NO, I'm not an evil Eggman fan!

In some ways, yes. In 2007's "Free Comic Book Day," he implanted a chip into Sonic's head which bent the blue blur to his will. And of course, there's always the Mecha Madness Special from way back when, where Sonic was a mindless robotic slave to the evil Doctor!

Are Sally, Antoine, Rotor, Bunnie, or Mighty ever going to come back?

- KATELY C.
ILLINOIS

Come back? We didn't know they were missing!

NEXT ISSUE: 40

"The End" - The last issue of SONIC X goes out with a bang - literally! - as Shadow and Metal Sonic crash Cream's tea party! Where did these two come from, and more importantly...where are they going? It's one last wild ride for Sonic as we make way for SONIC UNIVERSE #1!

On Sale the Week of 01/05/09

One more month until the very last issue of SONIC X! After that, it's time for SONIC UNIVERSE! Don't forget! Keep on juicin'!
